NAIROBI KENYA

15TH – 19TH APRIL 2026

HOW TO GET TO NAIROBI

The main gateway to Nairobi is Jomo Kenyatta International Airport (JKIA) (NBO), located about 15 kilometers southeast of the city center.

- Major Airlines Flying to JKIA: Kenya Airways, Emirates, Qatar Airways, British Airways, Ethiopian Airlines, and Turkish Airlines.
- From the Airport to the City:
 - Uber/Bolt: The most convenient option, costing KSh 1,500–2,500 (approx. €10–€18) depending on traffic.
 - Hotel Shuttles: Many hotels provide pre-arranged airport transfers.
 - Yellow Airport Taxis: Available at the arrivals terminal (usually more expensive than Uber).

Hotel Boulevard, Nairobi

Hotel Boulevard is a centrally located hotel in Nairobi, situated on Harry Thuku Road, just off Uhuru Highway, opposite the University of Nairobi and next to the Nairobi National Museum area. The hotel is well known for hosting conferences, workshops, and professional meetings, and offers modern conference facilities in a quiet and secure environment close to the city centre and Westlands.

It serves as an ideal venue for academic, development, and stakeholder meetings, with easy access from major roads and public transport routes.

How to Get There by Uber

From Westlands:

Request an Uber via Waiyaki Way, proceed onto Uhuru Highway, then turn onto Harry Thuku Road. Continue straight and ask to be dropped at Hotel Boulevard Nairobi, which is clearly marked and located near the University of Nairobi area and close to the Nairobi National Museum.

From the City Centre:

Request an Uber to Hotel Boulevard Nairobi via University Way or Uhuru Highway. The hotel is located along Harry Thuku Road, a short drive from the central business district, opposite the University of Nairobi and near the Nairobi National Museum.
